On Building Code Matters

Board Of Appeal To Be Named By Council

A five-man board of appeal is to be set up by the city council to study and recommend action on matters within the scope of the building code, it was decided Monday when an action was sought on a border-line proposal to waive certain factors in construction for the new Methodist Church on Winchester Road. The building would at times seat 500 people and Mayor Richard Morton said the requirement in the code was a safety factor which he said seemed more important now than did the dollars and cents the proposal sought to save.

Carl Steiner, builder, indicated there was nothing that might be inflammable in this structure. Fire Chief Jack Scott said the inside stand pipe would not be used by the fire department but was for emergency use, practical in factories and places where some one is trained for its use but not of much value where laymen use it. As Campbell does not have its own building inspector and permits are issued through the county department, the board of appeal was deemed practical in that men called on to serve on the committee will be those allied with the building trades. Mayor Morton indicated the appointments will be made at the next council meeting.

Joseph Bonacina, city attorney, reported that the suit by the City against the Central Fire District and the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors for apportionment of district assets allegedly due the City following incorporation March 28, 1952, is on the Superior Court calendar for next Wednesday, April 6.

Council wanted to make further study of the application of Michael Kohn for an off-sale liquor license at 81 South Winchester, between a hardware and a new grocery store.

Dorothy Trevethan, city clerk reported receiving checks for the city from PG&E for $2,071 and for $1,214.81 for gas and electric franchises in 1954 which sum with $1500 from garbage franchise, is about $100 more than received for franchises in the previous fiscal year.

A technical change involving width of real property brought council approval to re-hearing on the Rice property at Latimer and Winchester, site of a million dollar shopping center on which building is expected to start this month.

Some change in the course for the proposed sewer line on Cypress avenue was made by a subdivision engineer so council is to study the plan until next meeting before acting, also a plan to correct grade level at Rincon, Virginia and Cypress intersection.

Council voted to spend $1500 for repairs, for rodent control and for flushing sewer lines by Sanitation District No. 4. Steve Goodman, manager, said the sewer rental money is coming in and that there was sufficient money with which to do this work, which statement was verified by William Enochs, city auditor.

The city called bids to be opened April 25 for 200 gallons of white paint and 2000 pounds of reflector spheres for marking traffic lanes as requested by LeRoy Black, public works director.

A sketch of the four-lane interchange approach to Hamilton avenue was received from the division of Highways, the city indicating Hamilton is to be made a six lane road as agreed.

Council approved a contract submitted by Mark Thomas from the Division of highways in which $5100 was to be paid from Chapter 20 funds toward signals and road widening at Campbell avenue and the Los Gatos-San Jose Road, the commission indicating however there was no money available on high priority for widening all the way to Hamilton avenue as proposed.

General obligation bonds for district flood control were endorsed by the council as a countywide move, Mayor Morton saying this is of vital importance to Campbell as we are right in the middle of the control district.

"We can't grow without this flood control" the mayor said.

Campbell Water Co. Plans Improvements

The California Public Utilities Commission has just authorized the Campbell Water Company to spend an estimated $56,096 for improving its system of distributing water to approximately 1,850 customers in and about Campbell.

The work project calls for a new well costing $10,200, submergeable pump $6,800, purchase of a lot at $1800 laying 8 inch pipe to Moreland Way, 1060 feet of 6 inch on Page street for fire department, 562 feet of 6 on Dillon, 620 of 6 Creek to Cypress, 880 of 6 on Dot, 935 of 8 Highway to Sunberry, 500 of 6, Sunnyside to Highway, 950 of 8 Sunberry to Carlyn, 950 of 6 on Rincon, Dot to Milton, fencing corporation yard, 46 new services in Bellicetti tract along Latimer, new billing machine and new shop building.

The commission reported an increased demand for water services so these expenditures will have to be made to cope with the demand.

'PRESS' TO BE DELIVERED BY CARRIER BOYS

Because of steady growth in Campbell and need for early delivery, the Campbell Press will start carrier service with the next issue, April 7, the area to be served being mainly in the city limits. The Press is is to be delivered in the morning and the Shopper's Guide in the afternoon.

VASONA IS TO HAVE STATION

A station is to be erected at Vasona Junction soon after the new schedule is started April 24, for the convenience of Southern Pacific passengers from Los Gatos, Campbell and Saratoga on a commute train leaving Vasona at 6:44 a. m. for arrival in San Francisco at 8:20 a. m. by way of Los Altos, returning from San Francisco at 5:17 p. m. and arriving at Vasona at 6:40 p. m.

This is according to James McDonald, passenger agent who said the news release was coming out this morning. The train is to start from San Jose and the next scheduled stop is to be Vasona, two miles south of Campbell and three miles north of Los Gatos.

The termination date for the Los Gatos station is on April 24, according to W. R. Peters, examiner for the Public Utilities Commission. Trains have been deadheaded to and from Los Gatos which has been the terminal. Los Gatos town officials are on record as not objecting to the ending of the passenger service if the freight service is also abandoned leaving the SP right of way through town open for potential off-street parking, according to the Los Gatos Times. Southern Pacific yesterday indicated freight service would be continued to Los Gatos the same as to Campbell.

Peters said the railroad company is required to give ten day notice of any schedule change. He said PUC has no jurisdiction on freight services, this being a function of Interstate Commerce Commission.

'Meet The Press' Program April 11

World Affairs Council is to have a "Meet the Press" session Monday, April 11 at the new Congregational Church at Leigh and Hamilton avenues, when editorial staff members from the Campbell Press, Los Gatos Times, San Jose Mercury and radio station newscasters interview Musa Nasir from Jordan and Mohamed Roem from Indonesia, two of the twelve learned Asians now touring United States informiing of conditions in their countries. Both men speak excellent English. The program is open to the public without charge.

South Area In Bid For City Annex

Don Perkins of 551 Emory Avenue appeared before the city council on Monday evening in a plea to have several block of a built-up area in his neighborhood annexed to Campbell, a project which Mayor Richard Morton pointed out would call for an election.

Perkins said that he had talked with about 25 home-owners on Emory and Kenneth avenues all of whom were in favor of such annex but Mayor Morton said there are about 300 homes in the proposed area including Old Orchard Road, Robin Lane and a portion of Sunnyoaks avenue. The mayor said that three years ago when Campbell was incorporated this very section was sliced off the boundary lines because residents said they did not want to be a part of the incorporation. He said that this was a very desirable area and a fine neighborhood, but that a more complete report would be needed expressing action. If a more extensive poll is taken, the city then may send out postcards to ascertain the trend, and if favorable then would call the election.

CITY MAY INSTALL TRAFFIC LIGHT CAMPBELL AVE.

The portable traffic light which has been operating at the intersection of Campbell and Winchester Road for the past week has proved to be a success, according to Police Chief Robert Locke. He says 75% more traffic has been able to pass through the intersection during the busiest hours than was possible before its trial and its installation relieves a Police officer for other duties. Without the light Police were on duty at the corner for approximately two and one half hours a day; during the noon hours and the peak evening traffic. So far only favorable observations have been received from the public by the Police Department.

The light is being given a trial at the request of Mayor Richard Morton and is being considered for purchase by the City Council if found successful.

BPWC Hears Of Study By School Needs Committee

"A Co-Operative Study of Elementary Education in California Schools", current project of the state Needs Committee, was discussed by Ann Meridier, principal of Cherry Lane School, and Alice Schmidt, teacher at Rosemary School, at last Wednesday's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

As members of the Committee they said the basic idea of the study is to compile information from both teachers and parents as to what constitutes a good school program and to point out the needs of the children. From their study so far, the committee realizes they have only scratched the surface of a gigantic problem.

As a result of this co-operate study a pamphlet is being prepared for distribution to school districts containing the findings and recommendations of this Needs Committee which are being closely watched by educators throughout the country.

Rutherford Has Sold Latimer Corner Site

Sale of his property at the northeast corner of Latimer and Winchester Road was announced today by Dave Rutherford, who said that a major oil company is to erect a station there within the next four months. The sale went into escrow on March 23 in a transaction handled by W. H. Lee Realty Company of San Jose.

The property zoned now as C-2-S was to have been the site for Rutherford's Mortuary if his pressent site was taken over by the Campbell High School. However Rutherford had indicated he will have other occupation when the school takes his property, the former Hedegard home, in June. The planning commission had indicated that since the property was not to be used for the purpose for which it was zoned, that they might initiate proceedings to rezone it back to R-3-S. Nestor Barrett, planning consultant indicated at the commission meeting that property fronting Winchester road owned by Garrison brothers and Rutherford would better be zoned for apartments and duplexes in keeping with the new apartment house now going up on East Latimer and with the apartment units owned by the Garrisons and set back from Winchester Road.

The Garrisons had applied for rezoning of their frontage property to C-2-S so as to erect an attractive building to house seven shops, commission indicating there was inadequate parking space. Plans were then re-drawn to provide for 57 parking spaces and when before the commission March 3, it was rejected, assertedly for the good of the community. Emory Garrison said he would appeal to the city council which body later agreed to hear the case while sitting as a board of appeal.

At the council meeting Monday, the Garrison brothers were present with their attorney, Paul Gallagher, who asked that the appeal be withdrawn without prejudice so that application may again be made for zoning to C-2-S of this property. Councilman Charles Rose said he saw no reason why such request should not be granted, which was done by unanimous vote of the council.

EDITORIAL

WE'RE THREE YEARS OLD TODAY

As a city, we are just three years old today. And as a city, Campbell is well established with a balanced budget, a sound government and a firm foundation for growth and stability.

New lands have been annexed in the last year having values which will increase our assessed valuation, and many new homes are being built which also will add several million dollars to assessed valuation over that when Campbell was incorporated three years ago.

There are changes yet to come, and we are at a crucial point of deciding which way to move. Sooner or later we will need a civic center and a park. Some feel we need a youth center. Is the need to be for more multi-unit homes and other rental properties, for more commercial properties, for industrial development, for homes of better quality to individual home owners? What about roads, drainage, police and fire protection in keeping with a continued growth? What about schools and churches?

A city is more than stone and mortar, lumber and gardens. It is bigger than population, for unless there is a binding force that holds a city together so there is a common interest in civic welfare, it will lack character. We are three years old, and already that binding force has knit together a city that gets stronger day by day. Planning is deliberate and practical. In just three years, Campbell has become firmly established as a city. Hang on, the future is bright.

TRAIN SERVICE FOR CAMPBELL

It seems definite today that once a day commute service will be made direct to San Francisco from Campbell the latter part of April. At least the word has come from the California Public Utilities Commission that the commuter service to the Los Gatos station will end April 24 and that the station will be relocated at Vasona junction, two miles south of Campbell.

The Campbell Press was first with the story that the Southern Pacific was considering such a change, proposing that the commute train start from San Jose, making stops at Campbell, Vasona, Los Altos and Palo Alto, then on into San Francisco. The present system deadheads a train from San Jose yards to the Los Gatos station as the site of origin and terminal. The new change seems more practical.

WE LIVE TWO LIVES

There are 963 weekly newspapers in Canada, with a total circulation of almost 2,500,000. The January issue of a monthly letter issued by the Royal Bank of Canada was devoted entirely to them and their significance. It said: "Singly or taken together, these weekly newspapers have a great influence on the thought and action of our people.

"Everybody, in a sense, lives two lives, one in a small and the other in a great circle. He belongs by birth or choice to various intimate groups, like his family, his neighborhood, and his cluster of friends. He is also a member of the whole society of Canada, and he is living within an interdependent system of nations. The weekly newspaper belongs to his intimacy."

The same thing is true of the thousands of United States weekly papers and small city dailies. They are the running record of the community, and of the individuals, families, enterprises and institutions which created, forged and maintained it.

IS CANCER CONTROL NEAR?

Under the sign of the conquest-of-cancer sword. thousands of volunteer workers will give time in April to the educational and fund-raising crusade for American Cancer Society. The quota in Santa Clara County is $40,000 and our share is $1200.

These funds will be used in research toward finding new cures, services to patients and in education not only of doctors and scientists but of the lay people seeking to know the realities of cancer and ways of defeating it.

HO-HUM, WELL!

The way things look right now, politically speaking, the Republicans seem to be grooming Eisenhower and California's Richard Nixon to be standard bearers again in 1956 while the Democrats may turn west for a running mate for Adlai Stevenson and it could be our own Pat Brown, the Attorney-General for California, who piled up such a substantial majority of both Republican and Democratic votes in the State election last year. So now that we have that all settled, seems a pity that we have to go to all that expense of conventions in San Francisco and Chicago.

WATER AUTHORITY IS NEEDED

Santa Clara and San Benito Counties have united with Alameda County to set up machinery for water here from any practical source. This will call for an election so the authority can look into the plans for getting water to our lands.

The authority will have the power to tax up to ten cents per $100 valuation of land only.

This is an important step and a wise one by the board of supervisors. Just like the parking situation grows in a congested area, so also does the need for water increase with more population and more industries, and the need is here before one realizes it.

TWO INVITATIONS Are on my desk awaiting immediate reply, one from Honolulu to come over with the California Press Association to Moana Hotel, Waikiki Hotel and see the lovely bathing beauties, the other invite being from friends of long standing to spend the Easter week-end with them at their ranch and advise at once (1) Mode of transportation, (2) If arriving with servants, (3) time of arrival, and (4) if mocking bird's song at sunup by bedroom window would be disturbing and if so would I (A) Want the bird shot, (B) Prefer an inside room on the living room davenport; (C) Wait and let you put salt on its tail so you can take it home or (D) Not retire until the bird has finished his song routine . . . . . both are tempting and I'm the curious kind so may see if that bird has anything on the whirr-rk of the newspaper presses, clackety-clack of linotypes or mallet planing of type forms which so often has lulled me off to the land of nod.

A COURSE In parliamentary law has been opened for PTA members at Moorland School with Mrs. Roger Deal as instructor . . . April 16 is to be National Geographic day for Moreland and old copies contributed at the school or at the Clarence Neale barn in Saratoga, will be bound and indexed.

FOUR YEARS AGO In a shop at their home at 834 Lovell avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Conn began a labor of love which is now completed in a three dimensional reproduction in life size of Gruenwald's famous "altar piece". The Crucifixion in which they used natural hair for eyebrows and heads and special preserving oils which give life-like appearance to the subjects . . . the original painting was completed in 1515 for the Antonite Monks of Isenheim, Germany and during the second World War it was hidden in the salt mines and eventually restored to the Unterlinden Museum of Colmar, Germany . . . . The Conns have grouped the figures to show Christ on the Cross, Virgin Mary being comforted by John the Disciple, Mary Magdalene and the resurrected John the Baptist prophesying Christ's immortality, it being displayed for the next three weeks from four to six and seven to nine by San Jose Council of Churches at 80 South Fifth Street in San Jose where the drama of the scene is enhanced by organ music, lighting effects, a blue velvet backdrop against a white proscenium arch. . . . the Conns are the cooriginators with Harry Liston of the reproduction of the "Last Supper" which is now on display in the Santa Cruz Art Museum, and Russell Conn is widely experienced as a scenic artist in the East and at Hollywood where he worked with Cecil B. de Mille's epic "The King of Kings".

NORTHBOUND TRAFFIC On Winchester Road backs up bumper to bumper from Campbell avenue to Rincon at times each day because there are but two lanes for travel, however with the portable signal device tried out by the city this week, the traffic movement seemingly is twenty-five per cent more efficient, according to Police Chief Robert Locke . . . . the red, yellow and green lights come on at the center of the street and the traffic moves in orderly manner, especially while officers and Councilmen are standing by watching results . . . council may consider this signal come budget time . . . it was moved when out of service to Glen's Service Station one afternoon and someone must have turned on the signalling device again, because the green and the red kept coming on to cause a mild scramble until an attendant turned it off.

SPILLED MILK?

In discussing Yalta, President Eisenhower told his press conference that " . . . there is nothing, as I can see, to going back ten years and showing that . . someone may have been wrong, or someone may have been right."

But Senate Republican Leader Knowland does not agree; nor does Chairman Bridges, of the Senate Republican Policy committee. Senator Knowland acknowledged the President's right to "his personal opinion," but said he would "continue to discuss Yalta whenever I believe it is pertinent."

"The best guidepost in looking forward," said Senator Bridges, "lies in benefitting from the lessons of the past. Yalta was one of the sad lessons of history."

And what ever became of the GOP campaign pledge to repudiate secret agreements?

Cancer Society To Sponsor New Footlighter Play

C. E. Bradley, business manager of the Campbell Grammar School District and chairman of the American Cancer Society Fund Drive in the Campbell High School District announced today that the Cancer Society will sponsor the Footlighters in their new play "Good-Bye My Fancy" which is to be staged April 22 and 23 in the Campbell High School auditorium. All proceeds from tickets will go to the American Cancer Society.

Bradley said arrangements for the forthcoming fund drive are almost complete and he will soon announce the exact date of a "Tag Day" when women on the Cancer committee will set up tables in the stores of Campbell merchants and display Cancer cans.

He has mapped out a new type campaign scheduled to go into effect after Easter whereby 10 people can make 20 calls and cover 100 square blocks. This new approach to fund raising will be tried first in the Cambrian district where one householder on each block will be contacted by the committee and asked to make his donation and then take the can or envelope to his next door neighbor who will be asked to do the same until the can has completely encircled the block. At the end of the day the committee will call on the last home and pick up the donations. During the day a sound truck will move through the designated district asking people to keep the can moving and not let it stop at any one place for more than a few minutes. Bradley estimates that if the 5,000 people in the Campbell area that have telephones would contribute 25c each the fund drive would go over its quota and not fall short as in previous years.

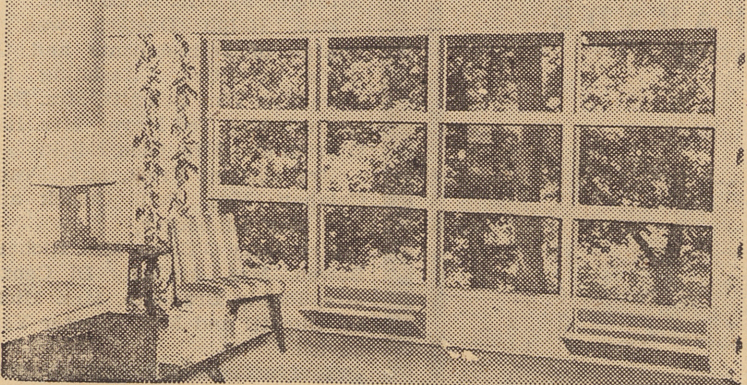
Windows 'Expand' Room



A small, dark living room can be made larger and brighter with this remodeling idea from American Builder, the light construction magazine. Make the garden or patio part of the living room with a floor-to-ceiling wall of ponderosa pine picture windows. Beneath the 12 fixed sash windows are four hopper sections that open inward for ventilation. For modernization jobs like these, American Builder advises consulting a local building materials dealer, who will not only help with plans, but recommend a reliable builder.

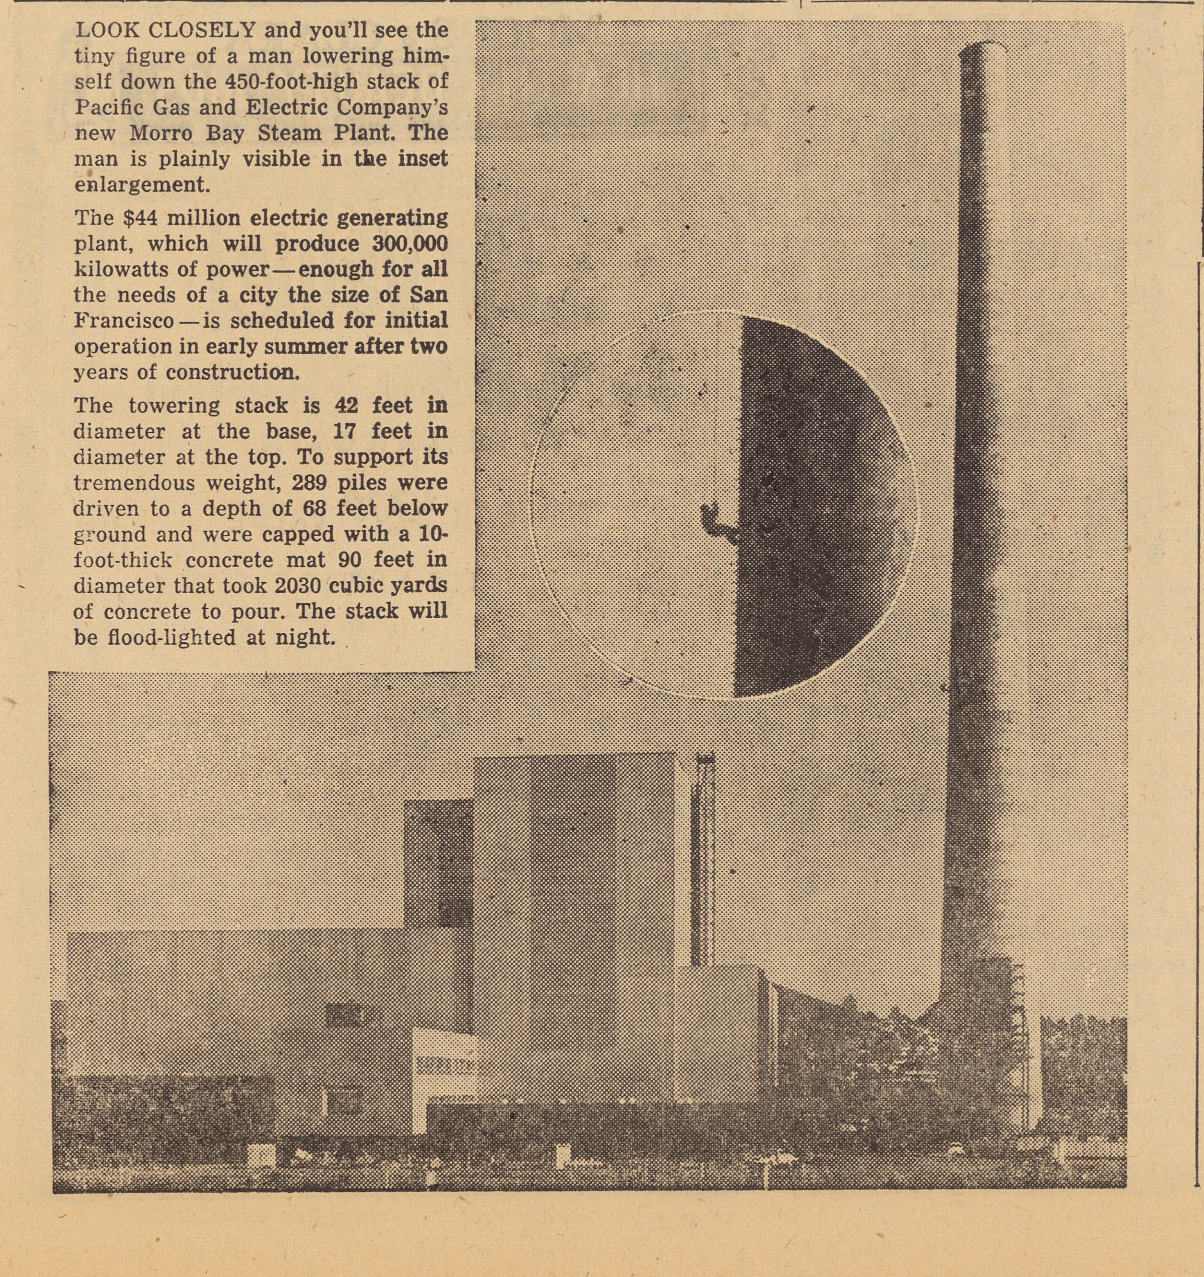
CHRYSLER SALES SUCCESS IN AREA

Continuing their steady rise sales of 1955 Chryslers and Imperials for the second 10 days of March, 1955 increased more than 71 per cent over the same period a year ago, reported E. M. Braden, general sales manager, Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corporation.

Dealers delivered 5,435 new cars to owners during the second 10 days of March, 1955 compared with 3,177 cars for the same period in 1954—an increase of 71.1 per cent. Deliveries for the first 20 days of March 1955 totaled 10,580 cars, more than 67 per cent above the 6,309 delivered in the same period in 1954.

"Chrysler sales are continuing the rise begun with the introduction of the new models and they are going to move upward", Braden said. "To date the factory has shipped or has firm orders from dealers for more than 112,000 units. When compared with total 1954 model sales of 99,908 Chryslers,



LOOK CLOSELY and you'll see the tiny figure of a man lowering himself down the 450-foot-high stack of Pacific Gas and Electric Company's new Morro Bay Steam Plant. The man is plainly visible in the inset enlargement.

The $44 million electric generating plant, which will produce 300,000 kilowatts of power—enough for all the needs of a city the size of San Francisco—is scheduled for initial operation in early summer after two years of construction.

The towering stack is 42 feet in diameter at the base, 17 feet in diameter at the top. To support its tremendous weight, 289 piles were driven to a depth of 68 feet below ground and were capped with a 10-foot-thick concrete mat 90 feet in diameter that took 2030 cubic yards of concrete to pour. The stack will be flood-lighted at night.

Campbell Lumber At New Location

The Campbell Lumber Company is now doing business at its new location at the junction of Winchester and Casey Roads after moving from its old location on Campbell Avenue around the first of January. The new yard and buildings cover eight acres and allow the company to carry a much larger and more varied stock than before in finished materials. It carries a complete line of plain and fancy redwood moulding and a larger stock of dry, dimension redwood lumber, including 4 x 4 clear which is usually hard to obtain, and all kinds of other lumber, with a large stock of paint, nails, hardwood and other supplies necessary for building.

The newly built warehouse is the largest single lumber warehouse in Northern California and covers 10,000 square feet, or one-fourth of an acre. It has three levels for storing lumber, with a wood shop annex for making frames, special doors and other types of finished products.

Campbell Lumber Company is the oldest lumber yard in the Santa Clara Valley, being established by the original founder in 1860, and has been owned by only three families in this entire time. The Arends brothers are the present owners and operators, having taken over the business when their father, James B. Arends, the third owner, passed away in 1949.

Emerson "Doc" Arends, his wife Betty, and two children, Harry, 2½, and Emily, 6 months, make their home at 500 Cambrian Drive. James B. Arends Jr. lives at 449 Maple with his wife, Evelyn, and eight year old twin daughters, Evelyn and Gretchen. He is actively interested in Civic affairs and has been a City Councilman since Campbell's incorporation.

Emily Williams Claimed By Death

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Darling, Fischer & Krug Memorial Chapel for Mrs. Emily Williams of 109 E. Rincon Avenue who died Sunday in a San Jose hospital following a long illness.

She was a resident of Campbell for nine years, a native of England, age 52 years.

She is survived by her husband, Forrest Williams of Campbell, a brother in Canada, and relatives in England.

Campbell Variety Show A Success

The Variety Show sponsored by the Campbell Grammar School PTA last Thursday and Friday evening was enthusiastically received by a capacity audience at both performances and was judged a financial success.

The "Circus" theme was carried throughout the entire perforance with the "Big Top" band opening the program. Acts featured 175 children as barkers, side shows, snake charmers, bearded ladies, tent shows, a toy shop, merry-go-round, baton artists, Hawaiian dancers, acrobats and silent movies.

"Beatrice Kay and Chorus" proved to be a riotous number put on by teachers Claude Walsh, Bob Downing, John Rowland, Bill Mette, Ralph Dill and Mario Chisessi.

Fathers of the PTA did a Can-Can number which was a show stopper just as they predicted it would be.

Mrs. Edwin Miller was general chairman, Fred Sinclair, director and writer of the original scripts; Mrs. Dorothy Royce, producer; Don Stephens, stage manager;
